

Gary Numan, London Times

London times
Hear they were the golden times
Captured all the hearts and minds
Oh how the memory shines
Like diamonds
Keep shining, like diamonds

London times
Say they were the best of times
Dancing till the big bell chimes
Oh how the memory shines
Like diamonds
Keep shining, keep shining
Shine away

Those were the days of (power?)
Sing yeah for the Beatle and the Stone
These were the days
Yeah yeah yeah

-repeat chorus-
