Gary Numan, That's Too Bad

I look up and the camera eye is Searching my room The TV screen is calling me But for what or whom Please mister do be careful I'm so fragile Maybe they'll let me down To Speedy's place for a while

Oh well that's too bad Oh well that's too bad Oh well that's too bad Oh well that's too bad

I talk a lot, a sign of fear
I thought you should know
I can see pictures of me well
They're so-so
I'll come on to the leader
Like I'm some hero
He'll laugh and raise his dying eyes
And just tell me to go

1920 Flashbacks for an hour or more Of crazy actors hiding In the doorways top floor Machines scream in anger From a thousand dead ends I turn my face, I crawl away, I look for a friend
