

Gary Numan, Torn

Silently I wait alone for you
I've got to put my fear back in its box
Silently I feel you breathe on me
And I hear mercy sigh and leave the room

You could hurt me
Take my breath away.
Would you like that?
You could rip me
Leave me torn and cold.
Would you like that?

One More Sin. Make me unforgiven

Silently, I turn and play begins
I watch you smile
Just like a dead things smiles
Silently I lose and darkness comes
I hear you laugh as God abandons me

You could cut me
Let me die for you.
Would you like that?

All I feel. Makes me unforgiven.
