

Gene Clark, Ship Of The Lord

There's a truth from the past to borrow
But we all seem to wanna have a little bit more
The path of love is of joy and sorrow
But a clear reservation on the ship of the Lord

We are all only ones creation
But the weight of the one is the weight of the whole
Don't need expenses or an explanation
For a clear reservation on the ship of the Lord

The falling sun from another morning
That is greeting the close of another days gone
Another day and another reason
For a clear reservation on the ship of the Lord

There's a truth from the past to borrow
But we all seem to wanna have a little bit more
The path of love is of joy and sorrow
And a clear reservation on the ship of the Lord.
