Gorillaz, Hallelujah Money (feat. Benjamin Cleme

Here is our tree That primitively grows And when you go to bad Scarecrows from the Far East come to eat It's tender fruits And I thought the best way to protect our tree

Is by building walls

Walls like unicorns

In full glory and galore

And even stronger

Than the Walls of Jericho

But glad then my friends

Out in the field

We shell reap a better day

What we've always dreamt of heaving

Are now for the starving

It is love

That is the root of all evil

But not our tree

And thank you, my friend, for trusting me

Hallelujah

Hallelujah Money

Hallelujah Money

Hallelujah Money

Hallelujah Money

How will we know when the morning comes we're still human?

How will we know?

How will we dream?

How will we love?

How will we know?

Don't worry, my friend

If this be the end

Then so shell it be

Until we say so

Nothing will move

Don't worry

It's not against our morals

It's a legally tender

Touch, my friend

While the whole world and whole beasts of nations desire power!

How will we know when the morning comes we're still human?

How will we know?

How will we dream?

How will we love?

How will we know?

Hallelujah

Hallelujah Money
