

Grace Jones, Someone To Love

Darling I, I was a fool, Oh what a fool, I thought you were cool,
Now I'm a victim of things that you do,
I just wanted someone to love, so I became a victim of love.
Lonely nights, spent all alone by a lonesome telephone,
You never called, you'd never come,
I just wanted someone to love, so I became a victim for love.
Darling I, I was a fool and so you used me just like a clown,
Oh I just wanted someone to love, so I became a victim for love.
Mon cherie, j"etais une folle, completement conne, tu n'etais pas con.
je veux te baiser, tu le mal que tu m'as fait,
Oh I just wanted someone to love, so I became a victim for love.
Why did you let go? Why did I lose,
When did love slip away, I though we were always going to stay,
Oh baby, where were you when I needed you,
Oh I just wanted someone to love, so I became a victim of love.
