

Grimes, My Name Is Dark

so we party when the sun goes low and tonight wishes I'm so doped out I am not shy but I refuse to speak because I don't trust you to understand me you know me as the girl who plays with fire this is the song I wrote you in the dark

I hear they're calling my line
I don't go to sleep anymore
I hear they're calling my line
I don't go to sleep anymore

the boys are such a bore the girls are such a bore I never trust a girl;, who let him pray to God , for sure I don't need to sleep anymore that's what the drugs are for
