

Guided By Voices, On The Tundra

On the tundra
We went under
Were going under now
On the tundra

We went to vicious places
Of dark and punished faces
Couldnt shake it
Or outgrow it

Swung hells gate open now
Dont we know it
Cause with my second guessing
The subjects for the testing
Look over our blunders
Our two-fisted wonders

The foxy wildest monsters dial is
More peaceful than a human hammer
The great pretend missionaries
Evolving without you
Dissolving without you
As you know
Its just too slow on the tundra

And then one day
Maybe today
Well justify the joke
Make it our day
And blow the total savings
To satisfy our cravings
Look over our blunders
Our two-fisted wonders

The foxy wildest monsters dial is
More peaceful than a human hammer
The great pretend missionaries
Evolving about you
Dissolving without you□
As you know□□□□
Its just too slow□□□□
As you know
