

Guided By Voices, Planet's Own Brand

everything is insane
the prices never change
the aisle of truth is zero and cold
come to planet
follow the search
come to me especially
drive me to drink
...in a car

something tells me no
but i can slip through the bars under the bushes under the stars come to planet now

it's just a start
come to me religiously
rent me a room in your heart
