

Guided By Voices, Portable Men's Society

Makes no sense to me
Proud men wear it only
Brings good company
How am I so lonely?

So run away
The sun is outside of a world at play
Awaiting the solid gold display

Mysterious engines run
To keep the dream from ending
The cloak obscures the gun
To keep what's worth defending

The best of days
The ones to remember are crumbling now
The vandals come for rummage

Affordable trends in anxiety
Especially the ones that make you raw
Portable men's society
Now I mention, now I mention these things
