

Guided By Voices, She Wants To Know

She wants to know which way the wind blows
And which way to go, I'm never gonna tell her
And she wants to know why I'm been hiding myself out on the road alone
Where no one knows my number

She wants to know why I can't take it slow
And why I can't settle down, but I'm never gonna burn out
She wants to know why I've been lyin' to myself -- playing a loser's game
Fightin' a losin' battle

Far away, that's where I'll be
Shine a light down hard on me

(She wants to know which way the wind blows
And which way to go, I'm never gonna tell her
And she wants to know why I'm been hiding myself out on the road alone
Where no one knows my number)

(Far away, that's where I'll be
Shine a light down hard on me
Down hard on me
Down hard on me)
