I'm hearing voices in my head, sayin', "Boy give 'em hell"
Gettin' on that yacht we 'bout to sail, and they pray that we fail
They thought I went broke so I bought that Patek, uh' Patti LaBelle
Real cheetah print skin inside of my jacket, you know I dress well
Only time my fans showed me, real love like I'm fresh home outta jail
I got a new girl that got real natural curves and don't use no gel
I'ma real ass boss, you get laid off you might still get a referral
I come from the South, boy watch your mouth, you play we gon' end your world
You lost they say you got swirled, I'ma different breed like a merle
I'ma serve this Earth 'til I hurl, I'ma get us some diamonds and pearls
Just want 'em to see that you chosen, I met you outta this world
I wonder if he likes you chosen, made it out the bottom of the barrel

I was hoping that you noticed me (Notice me)
