

Guy Sebastian, If He Won't

Another night
Another red wine
I can tell that you drinkin'
You see nothing's different
Since the last fight
And he says he's gonna change
But nothin' ever change

I can tell you things are gonna be better
Just so I can take your pain away
And tell you
Baby keep your head up

But what I am really dyin' to say is
If he won't, I will
And what I wanna say is
It's his loss

If he can't see it still
I knew it from the very first
I say you
But you should be loved
So if he won't, I will
