

H.E.R., For Anyone

Looking for your sound in someone else's house
But no one sings the same way
I look for peace of mind in someone else's eyes
Guess love is really blinding me

And I can't find
A reason to replace the feeling that you left behind
I tried, I tried

I wish i could tell you
I don't wanna be with somebody else now
Honestly, i wish i never met you
Cause you left me broken
Now my heart won't open for anyone

Remembering the Times
When you and i would hide
No one else would find that funny
And only you would know
I am better with you and it shows
Because the way you loved me

And i can't find
A reason to replace the feeling that you left behind
I tried /2x

I wish i could tell you
I don't wanna be with somebody else now
Honestly, i wish i never met you
Cause you left me broken
Now my heart won't open for anyone

Anyone but you
For anyone but you
For anyone
And i can't find
And i can't find
And i can't find
And i can't
And i can't find anyone
And i can't find anyone
