

Hella, Elkan Sings The Republic Of R P

taking chances to see what comes out as you breath change directions with ease take in what you release dissect it all carefully taking questions too heart answers cant be too far sit down and take it apart right to feel that i've got room to see that it's on think of ways to go back I could never see that this time would not trade what I've had I will always see this as right when it comes too call as the curtains fall it infects us all this is all I know
