

Hurts, Suffer

Show me your sexy little intellect
I'll show you how to make your head and body disconnect my darkest feelings are to coalesce and I feel the bubbles as my blood starts to effervesce

Whisper your pretty little epithets
And run your fingers down my body like a bayonet
I see your flexing in the silhouette
So tilt back your head if you want to feel the full effect

I feel, I suffer
I lose myself in you
I feel, I suffer, I suffer

Tough me and make me feel your mystery
And play my like you play your twisted little symphony Cause I am just addicted to I am just addicted to
I am just addicted to the way you get the worst of me and a little world I disappear into you into you

I feel, I suffer
I lose myself in you
I feel, I suffer, I suffer
I feel, I suffer
I lose myself in you
I feel, I suffer, I suffer
