

Ich Troje, Guardians Of The Night

streets light turn the city on chaos comes alive
sun is gone
until the dawn
a battle to survive

from a silence
comes a sound
closing in on you
a tidal wave a rumble ringing true

we're looking for souls
who can stand and fight
believe in a reason
to defend what's right
protecting a sound
let it scream out loud
raise your hands together
We are the
GUARDIANS OF THE NIGHT
We are the

walls of wires
rock it out
rhythm burns flame
comes in like a thundercloud a melody of rain

hungry for security
shelter from the storm
we find the lost shattered broken torn

protecting a sound
We are the
We are the
