

Idle Eyes, How The East Was Won

Mystic Temple, Eastern Warrior
Tell me tales of ancient glory
I fill my head with your story
Tell Me How The East Was Won

We got the over population
Living in this world
We got the whole United Nations
Living in this world

All the beggars you deny
To the Sultan of Brunie
You will laugh
You will cry
We are stronger than the Sultan

We got the over population
Living in this world
We got the whole United Nations
Living in this world

Holy Hindus swim the Ganges
Mother God of Earth and Sun
Like the ghats at Vharinasi
Tell me how the East was won

Mystic Temple, Eastern Warrior
Tell me tales of ancient glory
I fill my head with your story
Tell Me How The East Was Won
Tell Me How The East Was Won
