

Imagine Dragons, Bottle Of Coke

Oh let's take it slow, I'm just a little too bold, I'm growing older than my age
I made a leap, I can't believe it, you've been on my mind
Call it like you see it, I'm a little too early
Let it be, I'm just a puddle of mud
Staining everything I see that walks all over me

I give it up
You're just a bottle of Coke
I'm just a little too broke to believe it
Count me in
I'm just the grayest drown
And you're the talk of the town, can you believe it?

Wise man say I'm foolish, I just give him all a grim, two eyes are prudent
Never walking on a limb
I live on stars that burn so bright they close their eyes
Typically I wake when I'm a little bit nervous
So you think I'm such a competent fool
I'm telling everyone I know I'm strobing streets

I give it up
You're just a bottle of Coke
I'm just a little too broke to believe it
Count me in
I'm just the grayest drown
And you're the talk of the town, can you believe it?

I just keep on hoping you think what you think when you thought that I was golden, I'm not
But I give you what I got
I'm just a little bit old when I need to be young
I'm just a little bit young when I need to be-

I give it up
You're just a bottle of Coke
I'm just a little too broke to believe it
Count me in
I'm just the grayest drown
And you're the talk of the town, can you believe it?

I give it up
You're just a bottle of Coke
I'm just a little too broke to believe it
Count me in
I'm just the grayest drown
And you're the talk of the town, can you believe it?

I just keep on hoping you think what you think when you thought that I was golden, I'm not
But I give you what I got
I'm just a little bit old when I need to be young
I'm just a little bit young when I need to be-

I just keep on hoping you think what you think when you thought that I was golden, I'm not
But I give you what I got
I'm just a little bit old when I need to be young
I'm just a little bit young when I need...
