

Imagine Dragons, Ready Aim Fire

With our backs to the wall, the darkness will fall
We never quite thought we could lose it all
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire!
An empire's falling just one day
You close your eyes and the glory fades
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire away! (Fire!)
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire away!

Off in the distance, there is resistance
Bottling up and festering
Hey, mister Motion, make me a potion
Shake it all up with your mystery
How could I never seen your face 'round here?
I know every single face 'round here
A man on a mission, changing the vision
I was never welcome here

We don't have a choice to stay
We'd rather die than do it your way

With our backs to the wall, the darkness will fall
We never quite thought we could lose it all
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire!
An empire's falling just one day
You close your eyes and the glory fades
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire away! (Fire!)
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire away!

Back in the casing, shaking and pacing
This is the tune of life
Blood in the writing, stuck in the fighting
Look through the rifle's sight
How could I never seen your face 'round here?
I know every single face 'round here
Here in the heckle, holding the shackle
I was never welcome here

We don't have a choice to stay
We'd rather die than do it your way

With our backs to the wall, the darkness will fall
We never quite thought we could lose it all
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire!
An empire's falling just one day
You close your eyes and the glory fades
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire away! (Fire!)
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire away!

With our backs to the wall, the darkness will fall
We never quite thought we could lose it all
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire!
An empire's falling just one day
You close your eyes and the glory fades
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire away! (Fire!)
Ready, aim, fire! Ready, aim, fire away!
