

Imagine Dragons, The Fall

Maybe I'm broken
maybe I'm wrong
I could've spoken sooner than I should have only the good die old that's what they told me but I don't know

Maybe I'm breaking up with myself maybe I'm thinking I should just keep to the things that I've been told wait for the colors to turn to gold

Do you know?
Do you know?
you're all I know
you're all I know
When everything
comes crashing down
you're all I know
you're all I know

I'm ready for the fall I'm ready for everything that I believed in to drift away
ready for the leaves
ready for the colors to burn to gold and crumble away

Maybe I'm destined to be distraught always a reason breaking me down to my knees in the dead of night
I keep on praying to see the light
maybe I'm breaking up with myself
wait for the colors to turn to gold

[repeat pre-chorus x2]
[repeat chorus]

you were the one (x3)
who helped me see

you were the one (x2)
oh you gave it all to me

[repeat bridge x6]

I'm ready for the fall
ready for the leaves

Ready for the colors to burn to gold and crumble away
