

Ingrid Michaelson, Lady In Spain

I am the lady in Spain
I'll sing a haunting refrain
I am the lady from Mars
And I can unscrew the stars
I can be
Anything I see
I can be
Anything that I, anything that I see

And I am in love with a boy
Manufacture to destroy
I shall unravel my love
Like an old red woolen glove
I can do anything I want to
I can do anything I want anything my heart tells me to do
Tells me to do
Tells me to do
Dododo-dodododo-dododododo

I can be-ee-eeee
Anything that I see
I can do-ooo-ooo
Anything I want to
I can do-oooo-ooooooo anything I want to
I can be anything that I see
Anything that I see
