

Iron Fire, Beyond the Void

Are you ready to open up
And face your deepest fear
Do you care to mend your wounds
In your dreams they will reappear
Are you ready to dig the grave
And put it all to rest
You wanna dwell eternally
Cocooned in the demons nest

Look into the mirror
Flying high, staying low
Up from the abyss
In no disguise, paralyzed

Beyond the void
Caught in a spiders web
On a trail from the darkness
Slowly moving step by step
You get paranoid
On the edge of another fall
The bringer of madness
Crawling up the walls
From beyond the void

Beyond the void

Look into the devil's eyes
Recognize what you see
The writings on the wall
Bad blood and slavery
Do you trust your inner voice
Calling from the underground
You linger in your hideaway
Where lost souls will be crowned

Look into the mirror
Flying high, staying low
Up from the abyss
In no disguise, paralyzed

Beyond the void
Caught in a spiders web
On a trail from the darkness
Slowly moving step by step
You get paranoid
On the edge of another fall
The bringer of madness
Crawling up the walls
From beyond the void

You wanna turn back the time
You wanna undo the wrong
Try to hold back your breath
But you waited too long
Now you're trapped in no remorse
In the sorrow and grief
You're stuck in reverse
And torn from all belief

Beyond the void

On the edge of another fall
