

Izabela Trojanowska, You're Still Alive

Is anybody there? Are you listening?
Are You listening?
Is anybody there?
Hallo, hallo! This is Charlie Brown
And Mike Bridley!
Calling from "Voice Farm",
California to Warsaw!
This is the "Voice Farm",
Spanking team!
Hallo Warsaw, Warsaw!
Come in keep away!
You will have colour clothing soon!

Someone has always said
The end is just around the corner.
It's always been there,
Just around the corner.

You're still alive
Listening to this record
You're still alive
That's all that matters

Someone has always said
We running out of time
It's just an excuse
To forget about the living
We were promised space ships
And TV phones
I still want mine more than ever

You're still alive
Listening to this record
You're still alive
That's all that matters
