

J. Cole, Snow On Tha Bluff

The sun is shining today
The sun is shining today
The sun is shining today
The sun is shining today

Can you walk whiy me
I hope we'll find the reason why
We offer sob
Go on cry

Painful memories fuck up the vibe
Though i be trying to let the time heal my mind

I was once a child
I've gotten older
Still, o know i am just a boy in Gods eyes

Dfill me up whit wisdom
And some courage
Plus endurance to survive
Help mine thrive
