J.Wise, Tears

never mind me I am just a man the only thing I deserve in Spain I never be man you deserve world's been burning burning hot stars been fallin' fallin' down and I don't know if I am ready if I am ready

I am turning into someone that I don't know I am turning into died my love it takes so sweet everything I am touching turns to stone that told me that I'm doing what you should know you'd better get back home get back home o'love

I've been drowning in the tears living side by side with fear answers blowing in the wind I wanna be free hallelujah I've been drowning in the tears living side by side with fear answers blowing in the wind I wanna be free hallelujah
