

Jacob Plant, Reflections (feat. Example)

Reflections of us
That girl I used to know, where did she go? Maybe I chased her away
Reflections of us
That man I used to be no longer seen, maybe he wasted away
Reflections of us
It's only now I can see what we became
Reflections of us
Been over it now but I still can't breathe your name

Yo, reflections, this never was the plan, Stan
Up in alms like the Can-Can, in the middle of the street
And you're beeping your horn like you're Chitty Chitty Bang Bang
I'm a madman on reflection
We both made promises, couple novices
Honestly like that's stating the obvious
Sounds like I resent you, equally mad
I'm just a little less mental

Reflections of us

Reflections of us
That man I used to be no longer seen, maybe he wasted away
Reflections of us
It's only now I can see what we became
Reflections of us
Been over it now but I still can't breathe your name
Breathe your name
Breathe your name
Breathe your name

Yo, reflections, we're both looking loved up
Except I'm looking at a photo, was back in Jan down at Koko
Lovely to so-so, love's now a no-show
Still got the vids of you freaking on GoPro
Kept me going when we'd faded
I can still picture it in slow-mo, ho ho
Now it's Dorothy and Toto, over the rainbow
Still can't breathe your name though

Reflections of us
Reflections of us
Reflections of us
But I still can't breathe your name
Reflections
Breathe your name
Breathe your name
Breathe your name
