And I ain't never felt this way 'bout no lady

Considerin goin half with you on yo' baby

Somethin about you, makin me go crazy

Know if I ain't soured up, I'm so hazy

Me and you on the same page, so amazin

Need your love girl, so many ways

And you could only hold in out for so many days

And, got enough points to score but you shavin

Hell yeah I'm anxious, but you cravin

Time keep flyin, I'ma keep tryin

Bottom line, I need your L-O-V-I-N

Ride with me, all I need is you right by my side

[Verse Two: Jadakiss]

He such a small fella, to recognize the Mason Martin Margiela

What could I tell her

Man I swear you got to see her to believe her

Then maybe you could understand why I need her

Besides her bein a diva she wasn't bothered by the chiba

Zodiac sign was a libra

Definetly a keeper, I just wanna put her in a sleeper then fall out underneath her

Wake up, take a shower, then get deeper

Juice up get some power and then freak her

After the feedback then I could G Mack

But it's somethin about her love makin me need that, come on!

[Chorus: Ne-Yo]

Yeah I made no mistake, right by my side

Lil' mama that's your place, keep holdin me down

And you can help me spend this cake, right by my side

Ride with me, all I need is you right by my side

[Bridge: Ne-Yo]

When the drama comes my way (Way)

Long as I GOT YOU, girl it's nothing

Baby, it's nothing - I'm good

When these streets, girl, come what may (what may)

Shorty, we do what WE DO, so it's nothing

Baby girl, your love is something I need

[Verse Three: Jadakiss]

Yo, they say every good woman needs a thug

I totally agree, that's why I need your love (yep)

And I can't help it, if I'm selfish

Cause I need your love and nobody else's

Startin to taste it, pardon the bracelet (padon)

Chance of a lifetime and I can't waste it

If bein beautiful was a test, should've aced it

Her skin is flawless, her hair is wavelengths

Hi I'm Jason, ma I'm patient-ly waitin for us to have relations

Kissin me is just history in the makin

Squeezin and huggin I need your lovin, come on!!!
