

James Arthur, Ruthless

Six months, I thought it was love
You and me laying foundations
Now you're done in a trip around the sun
One day for you to lose your patience

We were growing like an orchid
And I tried to be all you wanted
The flowers that we watered
You ripped them out

Oh my God, you're ruthless
I was foolish, I was wrong
Now I'm crying, I don't do this
And it's useless
Now you're gone
Now that you're gone

Did you mean every word that you said?
'Cause they burn right through me, right through
Like you did
Oh my God, you're ruthless

Yeah, four days, all your messages delayed
I was spiralling, you know I love spiralling, ah yeah
Your mind was made, there was nothing I could say
I just felt you disengage, did you feel my heart break?

We were growing like an orchid
And I tried to be all you wanted
The flowers that we watered
You ripped them out

Oh my God, you're ruthless
I was foolish, I was wrong
Now I'm crying, I don't do this
And it's useless
Now you're gone
Now that you're gone

Did you mean every word that you said?
'Cause they burn right through me, right through
Like you did
Oh my God, you're ruthless

Oh my God, you're ruthless, yeah
Oh my God, you're ruthless, baby, you're ruthless, baby
