

James Hype, No Drama (feat. Craig David)

we don't need No Drama
I don't need problems in my air

dancin'
two in one tempo
.. is an echo
.. reflecting
our perspective
and now I know

love is never simple no matter how you love
difficulties and pain
that's ok
when you let them go

we don't need No Drama
dance with my body instead
