James Morrison, Broken Strings (feat. Nelly Furta

Let me hold you For the last time It's the last chance to feel again But you broke me Now I can't feel anything

When I love you, It's so untrue I can't even convince myself When I'm speaking, It's the voice of someone else

Oh it tears me up I try to hold on, but it hurts too much I try to forgive, but it's not enough to make it all okay

You can't play on broken strings You can't feel anything that your heart don't want to feel I can't tell you something that ain't real

Oh the truth hurts And lies worse How can I give anymore When I love you a little less than before

Oh what are we doing We are turning into dust Playing house in the ruins of us

Running back through the fire When there's nothing left to save It's like chasing the very last train when it's too late

Oh it tears me up I try to hold on, but it hurts too much I try to forgive, but it's not enough to make it all okay

You can't play on broken strings You can't feel anything that your heart don't want to feel I can't tell something that ain't real

Well the truth hurts, And lies worse How can I give anymore When I love you a little less than before

But we're running through the fire When there's nothing left to save It's like chasing the very last train When we both know it's too late (too late)

You can't play on broken strings You can't feel anything that your heart don't want to feel I cant tell you something that ain't real

Well truth hurts, And lies worse How can I give anymore When I love you a little less than before

Let me hold you for the last time It's the last chance to feel again
