JAN BLOMQVIST, Time Again

I came at 10 You left at 8 Time time again I came too late

Realize that things just weren't working Pretending that we were both blind A billboarded couple blank frozen Lunch on the terrace, like the dead we dine

When I wanna sleep your just wakin When I set a fire you complain 'bout the cold Just like our sunny vacations Stunning pictures they'll stay on the roll

Through love to hate Goes round again Wake up too late No sense or plan

Shiftless and weak Comfortably numb Words would not speak Not leave my tounge

Finger rests over the button Blank looks whiter than white You said it all, you said nothing The end comes without a fight

We were close at the start without thinking Caught up after one Berlin night Then red flags and warning lights blinking To cut the ties, time was just never right

You left at 8 I came at 10 You didn't wait Time and time again

Obviously We weren't great But you are

We weren't enough But you should know You are

It wasn't right Its never but You are

You are Yes, you are

I came at 10 You left at 8 Time time again I came too late

You left at 8 I came at 10 You didn't wait Time and time again Time and time again
