

Jax Jones, Bebe Rexha, Harder

baby when it comes to love it should be mutual
I know you think you're on fire but you kinda cold
but I need a little more than just the usual but you should know what you gon' do

when you think you've done enough
can you love me harder?
cause you know I need that put in work and don't give up
can you love me harder?

take it to the play baby, take time and get the floor right baby, you could get it for the whole ight I believe in nyou, know that you're the truth here's a little insight

baby when it comes to love
it should be mutual
I know you think you're on fire
but you should know

can you love me harder?

boy, if you can go a little longer we can make this love a little stronger ain't no other man can give me what you can remember what I toold ya but you get me on the edge and now I am getting close you should know /2x

can you love me harder, harder, harder, harder? /3x
