Jimi Hendrix, Introduction

Announcer:

"Lady's and gentlemen, the jimi hendrix experience."

Jimi:

"I see that we meet again hmmm. yeah well, well, well. dig Dig, I'd like to get something strait, we ummm we got tired Of the experience, and every once in a while we're blowing Our minds too much, so we decided to change everything around And a call it 'gypsy sons and rianbows' for short nothin' but A band of gypsies. we have billy cox playin' bass, and um from Nashville tennessee we have lary lee playin' guitar over there We got juma playin' congos over there, juma, and we have granny Goose, oh I'm sorry mitch mitchell on drums over there, and we Got jerry velez on congos too. you got yours truly on pete whistle What me worry? gives us about a minute and a half to tune up ok Like we only had about two rehearsals so a we'll only do a primary Rhythm thing. (someone in the background) I have mine thank you I have mine thank you, baby."
