Jimmy Buffett, Anything, Anytime, Anywhere

(Bruce Cockburn)

Tomorrow may come, it usually does Don't know what it will bring to the two of us I just want you to know What I'm ready to do

Anything, anytime, anywhere For you

When I'm holding you tight, you give me the power To burn like a torch in the darkest hour Tell me what you need I will surely come through

Anything, anytime, anywhere For you

Passion runs deep, it's scary sometimes When it's larger than life or your peace of mind It's got me all the same And I'm not sorry that's true

Anything, anytime, anywhere For you Anything, anytime, anywhere For you Anything, anytime, anywhere For you
