

Jimmy Buffett, Mademoiselle Voulez-Vous Danse

Mademoiselle, voulez-vous danser?
Take my hand, don't turn away
You've been sitting there all night long
I know that something must be wrong

Mademoiselle, voulez-vous danser?
A new moon has come out to play
Take my hand, step outside
These doors and windows open wide

The stars are out and shining, hear the south wind sighing
It'll be okay
Let the breeze caress you, violin undress your heart
On va danser

Mademoiselle, voulez-vous danser?
It will soon be the break of day
We all have so little time
Oh won't you put your hand in mine

The stars are out and shining, hear the south wind sighing
It'll be okay
Let the breeze caress you,
violin undress your heart
I swear, on va danser

Mademoiselle, voulez-vous danser?
A new moon has come out to play
Mademoiselle, voulez-vous danser
It will soon be the break of day
On va danser
On va danser

Mademoiselle, voulez-vous danser
Mademoiselle, voulez vous danser
Danser
We all have so little time
