

Jimmy Somerville, If I Could Tell You

Time will say nothing but I told you so, Time only knows the price we have to pay; If I could tell you
If we should weep when clowns put on their show, If we should stumble when musicians play, Time
There are no fortunes to be told, although, Because I love you more than I can say, If I could tell you
The winds must come from somewhere when they blow, There must be reasons why the leavers do
Perhaps the roses really want to grow, The vision seriously intends to stay; If I could tell you I would Suppose the lions all get up and go, And all the brooks and soldiers run away; Will time say nothing
