

Joe Cocker, Lie To Me

your lie to me a so long time i never believe the people took to me because you so lie reason the story about you and then what.... you are so inhuman poor girl but remember that lie comes after lies you do to me you provincial girl i give all my love im empty because of you lie to me lie to me so long... came in my life so quiet after silence comes your lies like storm to me... lie to me so sweet but i guess im strong to live without you.
