

John de Sohn, Dance Our Tears Away (feat. Kristin Amparo)

We can make it through these hard times
Dance our tears away
We can find our way in to the light
Dance our tears away

When everything just falls apart
We all stumble in the dark
And you feel out of place
Let's dance our tears away
Dance our tears away
Let's dance our tears away

Dance our tears away
So what do you say?
Let's dance our tears away

We can rise when we are beaten down
Dance our tears away
We can turn it all around
Dance our tears away

When everything just falls apart
We all stumble in the dark
And you feel out of place
Let's dance our tears away

Let's dance our tears away
Dance our tears away
Let's dance our tears away
