John Hiatt, I Spy

I spy for the fbi (I spy for the fbi) I spy for the fbi (I spy for the fbi)

I got an x-ray camera hidden in your house That sees what I can't see And that man you were kissin' last night Definitely was not me, oh baby

I spy for the fbi (I spy for the fbi) I spy for the fbi (I spy for the fbi)

Just because he was wearin' shades You thought he didn't leave a clue I got his name, I know his game He's double-0 you know who, oh baby

I spy for the fbi (I spy for the fbi) I spy for the fbi

(I spy)

I've got the facts in the file Baby I don't have to guess I took that agent's fingerprints Off of your new red dress, oh baby

I spy for the fbi (I spy for the fbi) I spy for the fbi (I spy for the fbi)

I know when you're out I know when you're in I know where you're goin' 'cause I know where you've been

I spy for the fbi (I spy for the fbi) Baby, I spy for the fbi (I spy for the fbi) Baby, I spy for the fbi (I spy for the fbi)
