

Johnny Cash, Crazy Old Soldier

(Johnny Cash)

I've had fame and fortune
Women come knock on my door
I've lived to the limit
Maybe a little bit more
There are so many stories
About how i got out of control
Some say its a woman
Some say its my troubled soul

I'm like a crazy old soldier
Fighting a war on my own
Just me and the wiskey
and the bottles are ten thousand strong You'd think I'd give up as many times I've been hit but like a crazy old soldier
I just dont know when to quit

(Ray Charles)

Barrooms and bedrooms are just faces and places and names Once for the pleasure and lord knows once for the pain I've tried to forget her and all the things that we've done but as long as there are memories I'll never hang up my gun

(Johnny Cash & Ray Charles)

I'm like a crazy old soldier
Fighting a war on my own
Just me and the wiskey
and the bottles are ten thousand strong You'd think I'd give up as many times as Ive been hit But like a crazy old soilder
I just dont know when to quit
