Johnny Cash, In Your Mind

In Your Mind In your mind one foot on Jacob's ladder and one foot in the fire and it all goes down in your mind Livin' at the bottom of the stairs of life never a smile knockin' on your door the air is blue and so are you prehistoric monsters on the floor Last verse of your last song and God don't hear dead men the end of the line is in your mind then you'll be stayin' in In your mind In your mind Bone for bone and skin for skin eye for eye and tooth for tooth heart for heart and soul for soul somebody said & guot; What is truth& guot;? Lock it up and close it down the sound of mournin' like a dove high beyond the rattlin' roar lookin' to the face of love [chorus:] In your mind In your mind it all goes down in your mind one foot on Jacob's ladder and one foot in the fire and it all goes down in your mind In your mind In your mind Sunday words are back again and you eat your fundamentalist pie but just a piece you understand you get the rest up in the sky Praise and glory, wounded angels shufflin' 'round the room eternity is down the hall and you sit there bendin' spoons In your mind In your mind Father, Son, and Holy Ghost sacrificial drops of pain on a silver plated cross sanctification on a chain Thay say redemption draweth nigh the storms of silence from above stop your ears and close your eyes and try to find the face of love [Repeat Chorus twice] submitted by Doug Smith {dksmith@king.bristol.tn.us}