Johnny Cash, One More Ride

I long for the trip I don't need no grip I'm takin' one more ride Way out there in the prairie air I guess it's in my hide For the clickety clack of the railroad track is callin' If a man can know where the Santa Fe goes when she gets under steam And the big loud bell that bongs farewell could hear her whistle scream He's bound to go where there ain't no snow a-fallin' One more ride One more ride

I miss the gloom of the prairie moon that seemed to know my name And the tumbleweed where the prairie don't feed I miss them just the same They're all a part of a song of heart I'm sayin' I recall the tune that I sang to the moon and it seemed to make it smile And I rode away at the close of the day and I stayed so long awhile But I long to be where the memory is ringing One more ride One more ride

As the years go by I wonder why I longed to leave my home And to hit the trail of the iron rail way out there alone But my heart would sigh 'til I know that I am leavin' If I don't come back on a one-way track way down from Mexico You can find me there or any old where that a tumbleweed will grow It's goodbye now you'll never know how I'm grievin' One more ride One more ride
