Johnny Cash, Without Love

Without love I am half human without love I'm all machine Without love there's nothing doin' I will die without love Without love I am an island all by myself in a heartbreak sea Without love there's no denyin' I am dyin' without love For there is nowhere I can run and there is no hiding place Sticking out like a sore thumb by that gloomy look upon my face Without love I'm incomplete without love I am not whole Without love I'm barely on my feet I am dyin' without love [Guitar] For there is nowhere I can run...
I am dyin' without love
