

Jojo, Joanna

we go back a long time I've been riding with you since day one if I remember we were just kids you were singing winning so young and innocent but these days you don't really sound the same do you still have the same range that you did when you were 14, girl?
I don't really know you should date somebody famous that'll probably put you on the A-list that'll probably get you on the playlist stop you being so damn underrated what is going on, Joanna?

what is going on, Joanna?
