

Jonas Brothers, Only human

i don't want his night to end it's closing time so leave with me again you got all my love to spend let's find a place where happiness begins we gon' dance in my living room slave to the way you move hurts when I am leaving you just dance in the living room lowe with an attitude drunk to an 80s groove

we gon' dance in my living room
drunk

it's only human you know that it's real so why would you fight or try to deny the way that you feel?
baby, you can't fool me your body's got other plans so stop pretending you're shy just come on end dance /4x

early morning laight only getting up to close the blinds I am praying you don't change your mind cause leaving now just don't feel right let's do it one more time, babe

lowe with an attitude
we gon' dance in my living room

so why would you fight or try to deny the way that you feel?
