

Journey, After The Fall

(Perry/Cain)

So now love is gone
I can't go on, love is gone
I want to say
Now it's just too late
Waited far too long

[Chorus:]
Should have told you then I knew
Should have told you right
From the start
But the words
Didn't come out right
So I'll tell you
Straight from my heart

You meant more to me
Than I let you see
You held on somehow
All your tenderness
And your sweet caress
I miss you now

But a headstrong stubborn man
Only works it out the best he can Valentines he never sent
There's not enough time
He's a workin' man

Can't stop fallin'
Heartaches callin'
Finds you after the fall
Saints or sinners
Take no prisoners
What's left after you fall
No not much no

Oh I say love is gone
I can't go on
Now love is gone
I want to say
But It's just too late
Waited far too long

[Chorus 2x]

No, no not much
After the fall
After you fall
After you fall
