

Journey, Here We Are

(Rolie)

When you give your all and you're feeling small, don't you cry
If you're crying loud you won't feel so proud, don't you cry

There's a place to be, won't you stay with me, you can help us see,
Here we are.

Let yourself go by,
You can touch the sky if you try.

All you've got to show, you may never know, what you are
If you ever try, can you tell me why, why you are Only you will know, and you picked your show,
Can you tell me though, will you know?
If you feel like me,
you can't help but please, who you know.
