Julia Michaels, Priest

mmm
yeah
there are liars but then there is you in respect, that's what bought me to you guess I thought I could change you to the truth I don't know /2x what I was thinking

in my weak moments
I think about oyu but not in the way that you thisnk that I do I've actually made up a game with y friends to see how long until this one ends and the next on ebegis I've got a hundred dollars riding on it

woo but I am not a priest, so fuck your confession woo but I am not a priest, so fuck your confession
