

Julia Pietrucha, Sailor

drifting in the ocean haze sailors on the ships itself the sun it's getting warmer and ... so calm
Another night so ... we stay up on the lake watching the waves breezing my face and if the lighthouse bouncing spark in the dark hiding away
find easy my mind

If we ever go to sleep
we'll dream, dream this lit
If we ever go to sleep

wake up with sand in my eyes the wind is bringing the change of heart the days is getting shorter now then you thing so cold and the flame so shine the we see the cliff looking away I'm trembling with fears and when the candlelight are ... the cigaret ...

coz If we ever go to sleep
we'll dream, dream this lit
If we ever go to sleep
and If we ever go to sleep
we'll dream, dream this lit
If we ever go to sleep
we'll dream,

lonely days
and lonely nights
are peace
I am dying not to loose you from my dreams
and lonely nights
I am free now you come on with words for me to hear aren't you lost your tongue with me with me
